

BEST AVAILABLE COPY

SECRET

137400Z 35

2P

SUBJECT, 6915 Center 137400Z in Connection with imposed Refuse.

108 - 2034
Ref. CTR - 2022
110000 - 2000
Date - 14 March 1951

SECRETARY, BUREAU

1. During the afternoon and evening of 27 February, Source was taken by 3509 to the 3504 in connection with the situation to 27. The 3504 and other 14 could be possible for him to organize a network among his acquaintances in the one of Source's acquaintances under his control. (See 20017, paragraph 15). From attention to visit that time, he was given the additional situation of visiting 3504/137400Z to determine if there is a copy of translation sent in that time. (In accordance with information contained in 3504, paragraph 1.)

2. At 1000 hours on 28 March, Source returned to him as instructed and was met by 3509 in the 3504/137400Z, Refuse, 23. He was escorted and was taken by 3509 to his imposed notice. (Attached as Exhibit 2, to original of this report.)

3. Shortly after 1000 on 27 February, Source was taken by 3509 to the 3504 where until approximately 0800, 28 February, when his trip to visit the 3504/137400Z. He went to his room's 3504 where his wife and child reside and found his child seriously ill. Due to the illness of his child, he remained in 3504/137400Z until 8 March.

4. Since Source was unable to leave his family, he sent his brother, 3504, to 3504/137400Z on 1 March to observe Soviet installations and determine if there is a possible camp in that town.

5. Source's brother, 3504, at 1115 on 1 March and arrived in Vienna at 1700. He then proceeded by airplane to Source's apartment in that city where he had major and remained over night.

6. At 0800 on 2 March, Source's brother took a bus as far as the junction of the 3504/137400Z road with the main highway, then walked approximately 2 miles to a house where he observed 3504/137400Z. At 1150 he obtained a 3504/137400Z newspaper with local inhabitants at the garbage there he had in a passenger car which took him back to 3504/137400Z. At 1200 he took a bus for 3504/137400Z where he arrived at 1400. He showed about town until 1500 when he took a train to 3504/137400Z where he arrived before 1700. He remained at the 3504/137400Z and spent the evening with Source. He returned to his apartment at 1530 and retired.

INDEX

SECRET

FOR COORDINATION WITH US Army

SECRET

7. During the morning of 3 March, Courvois's brother again visited from LAURENT and remained there until approximately 1330 at which time his bus left for VIENNA AIR T.T. At 1334 he took a train for KLEINBURG where he arrived at 2114.

8. At 0114 on 4 March after having debriefed his brother, Courvois departed by train for Vienna where he arrived at 0850. He went to his apartment and wrote up the notes which he had made while debriefing his brother. At 1900, Courvois left by electric train for VIENNA PRUDER, arriving at 1940. There he attempted to contact his old friend JOSEPH LINA who Courvois believes will accept employment in his proposed network. LINA was not at home so after making approximately two hours, he left a note requesting LINA to visit him in Vienna as soon as possible. At 1941, Courvois returned to Vienna, went to his apartment, had supper, went to church, returned to his apartment and then retired.

9. At 0706 on 5 March, Courvois took a train from TRIER JENSEN Bahnhof to TRIER. He arrived there at 0809 and proceeded to the home of an old amateur friend, Gustaf TRIER whom he plans to utilize in his proposed network. TRIER was out of town for the day so Courvois returned on the 100 train to Vienna.

10. On arriving in Vienna at 1105, Courvois spent the next few hours looking for an apartment. He had his lunch at 1300 and returned to his apartment at 1400. He met an old acquaintance, Peter TRITZ, a relative of Courvois's family, who resides in CURR INN, Pergaminal and invited him into his room for a drink. Courvois spent the afternoon looking for an apartment, went to his Russian lesson, visited a friend who is helping him find an apartment, had his supper at 1845 and returned to his room shortly after 2000, then he remained until the next morning.

11. At 1845 on 6 March, Courvois left Vienna by bus for KLEINBURG. He arrived there at 1210, had his lunch at the Gasthaus THE GONDRECH ABT, and at 1400, kept the appointment which had been set by his brother with (NAME REDACTED) at the 174800-1472 fountain. After approximately half an hour, (NAME REDACTED) left and Courvois spent the next few hours trying to locate an old friend who apparently no longer lives in KLEINBURG. At 1745, Courvois left KLEINBURG by bus and returned to Vienna. He had supper and went to his apartment where he spent the night.

12. Courvois felt ill on 7 March and so spent the day writing up part of his report and attending to some personal business.

13. At 0655 on 8 March, Courvois left Vienna by train and on arriving in Linz, went to the GASTHOF LUDWIG Hotel where he waited for 1509.

14. During the debriefing it became apparent that Courvois did not have sufficient detailed information concerning the individuals he proposed to employ in his network and therefore he was instructed to contact his friends and obtain the essential information. In addition, Courvois was instructed to visit the Bureau of the FBI - Washington area to observe Soviet Army movements and activities as outlined in XID-1, paragraph "c". Courvois was instructed to return to Linz on 10 March.

ATTACHMENT:

Exhibit "A" - Courvois's notes.

INDEX

SECRET

1509
1508A